RFADY FOR CHRISTMAS

The world is not and will not be ready for Christmas until it is ready for a rebirth of hope. One has to see back of the moving tinsel of middle December bustle and open the portals to the motives beyond . . . the story of new Hope which is the essence of Christmas.

New Hope, new Faith, these are the needs of the world today. Christmas spirit might be the tonic to cure the sick patient. Riots, prison wars, quakes, gangsters, rumrunners, lobbyists, tax burdens, hunger. these are the gifts the unwise men of 1931 bring to the manger.

Ready for Christmas? Hardly. Then hurry, purge your soul, America. Prepare for a rebirth of Hope, of Faith, of human kindness.

A GOOD PROGRAM, BUT . . .

The Byrd program of administrative advancement in Virginia was one of the most brilliant contributions to the welfare of Virginia ever made by one of its chief executives. Harry Flood Byrd will always be remembered as a progressive, alert and statesmanlike governor. Yet, one must bear in mind that the Byrd program was largely instituted before the present depression was felt and that the present governor is placed in a position to wisely retrench where necessary to protect the welfare of the taxpayers of the state. A studious study of every possible state economy should be the "program" of the administration.

Wants Salaries Cut

To the Editor:—

Sir: Let's move over into North Carolina. Did you ever in your born days know taxes to be lowered before without a revolution or great upheaval to force a change? North Carolina is actually lowering taxes this year about 25 per cent. Her last legislature lowered the salary of every state employee, even school teachers. The state assumed the entire cost of all roads and schools, thus relieving local tax levies.

Contrast that with Virginia. Our last legislature doubled the salary of the governor, raised circuit judges from $5,000 to $4,800, and raised the pay of every state employee, even to janitors of public buildings. They made a great joke of it like Nero who played the fiddle while Rome burned. Many of these same men were candidates and were reelected this fall. Any farmer, laborer or small business man who would vote for one of them deserves all the taxes put on him, even to a hundred per cent of his worth.

I don't mean that they should vote republican. Oh, no. Reconstruction and carpet bag days are still too recent and the character of the leaders are still such that we can hope for no good from the republican party in the south yet. But there are democrats and politicians and the politician is in the saddle in Virginia now and has been for years.

Note. they are now hunting for new things to tax to meet the coming deficit instead of lessing expenses to meet in-

FATHER DARKLEAF'S COLUMN

BY C.H.R.

Father Darkleaf admires the words, 'Southerner' and 'Virginian' as being just about the cream of the crop of complimentery phrases. Although still a man of youthful blushes, he has rambled around over the Old Dominion enough to appreciate that the words stand for certain personable qualities. How many recall, for example, Robert May, of the famiit which gave Maysville it's name. He was an esteemed Southerner of his day; was adept with the violin, being often accompanied by William H. Parrack and his "flexible flute." Or, how many recall the brilliant penmanship of David Parrack, of old Buckingham; or, Thomas Parrack's black beaver hat and cane; or how many remember Captain William A. Moss, treasurer of Buckingham for many, many year? I often worry for fear that the attributes of character and personality which made up the term, "Virginian", are neglected in the education of modern youth.

A Buckingham correspondent ten years ago wrote in to his paper that "everything is rosy." He said, "This village has many houses with electric lights. There is a sand-clay road running practically the whole length of the county, east and west. There is a handsome brick building here equipped as a high school. There are phone lines extending in almost every direction and there are apparantly more automobiles than buggies in the county. And we have been blessed with good crops and good weather." Oi, oi.

* * *

Father Darkleaf has a flare for statistics. Friximple: during 1930: 23,655 bushels of apples were reported harvested in Appomattox county; 1,279 bushels of cherries; 5,239 bushels of peaches; 2,365 bushels of pears; 783 bushels of plums; and 13.877 pounds of grapes. Also during 1930 there were 5,305 eggs reported produced of which 63,233 were sold. It was reported that $2,794 worth of honey was sold in the county. 785 farms in the county were operated by owners; 575 farms were free from mortgage.

* * *

All of which is very interesting, save for the fact that it doesn't mean a thing for the simple reason that all farms didn't report!

* * *

Feeling that his many friends and relatives are toppy-turvey with perplexity as to what to give Father Darkleaf for Christmas, I make bold to reveal my needs. I have four pairs of socks to my name, and only one sock not needing darning. My last Sunday shirt complete with buttons has become frayed at the cuffs. I'm still wearing the tie I wore at college graduation, and I like solid colors. I smoke Robert Burns cigars because I like Bobby Burns' "A Man's a Man For A' That." Have hankerchiefs, thank you. And I'd rather buy my own underwear and pajamas, hats and shoes . . . and books. No man living detests cigarette lighters like I do and I loathe desk sets. Military brushes don't interest me in the least and woe to the person who gives me a scarf. Well, maybe you'd better play safe and send me a Christmas card, . . . or send me $1.50 to send the Times-Virginian to someone for a year.

Well, I'll be a-seeing you all—out last-minute shopping Christmas Eve night!

come. We must get shut of the politicians and elect real democrats to office or the other thing will happen. What is the other thing? Read your history.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, Edmonia Blanch Phelps, who departed this life one year ago, December 17, 1930.

We miss our dear mother,
Her voice is still in death.
We no more hear her footsteps,
In Heaven she's at rest.

It is hard to give her up,
But God does all things right
And while we grieve so sadly,
We know she's at rest.

Dear mother we all loved you
Too well for you to stay.
And God thought best to take you
To Heaven where you could rest.

Sadly missed by husband and children.

INDIGESTION

"My work is confining, and often I eat hurriedly, causing me to have indigestion. Gas will form and I will smother and have pains in my chest.

"I had to be careful what I ate, but after someone had recommended Black-Draught and I found a small pinch after meals was so helpful, I soon was eating anything I wanted.

"Now when I feel the least smothering or uncomfortable bloating, I take a pinch of Black-Draught and get relief."

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Kerr' Dyspeptone to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas in the stomach, accompanied by that full bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of excessive acids in the stomach,creating socalled acid indigestion.

Acid stomachs are dangerous because excessive acid irritates the stomach's lining, often leading to gastritus and serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, forming this distressing gas which distends the stomach, hampering the normal functioning of vital organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect this serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing affects on stomach acids. Two teaspoons, full of Kerr's Dyspeptone right after eating will drive the gas and bloat out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize and prevent the formation of excess acid. Dyspeptone is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion. It is sold under a money-back guarantee. Write today for a bottle of Kerr's Dyspeptone, enclosing one dollar with your letter. Kerr Laboratories, Reading, Pa.—Adv.

In Memoriam.

In sad by loving remembrance of our loved one, Charles Edward Martin, who departed this life one year ago today, December 10, 1930. The face we loved is now laid low

His loving voice is still.
The hand so often clasped in ours—

Lies now in deaths cold chill.
We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
Why it was that he was taken
At this time we do not know,
But we hope some day to meet him—
On that bright and shining shore.
